A Fossil Not Collected Is A Fossil Not Protected

“Supporting Paleontology through ethical Commerce, Education and Cooperation”

Dear ,

I'm pleased to announce that Craig Kissick and Heritage Auctions have offered to once again host a mid-year auction for the association. The 2025 AAPS-Heritage Auction will open October 31, and close on November 14, 2025. I will send the link next month before the auction opens.

Donations to AAPS

The Association of Applied Paleontological Sciences (AAPS), is a public charity under IRS section 501(c)(3). As such it is tax-exempt for income tax purposes and is permitted to receive tax-deductible gifts pursuant to the Internal Revenue Service. It is also able to receive tax-deductible bequests for estate tax purposes. Donations to any of our scholarships and grants are totally tax-deductible here in the United States. 100% of all scholarship and grant donations are used for those purposes. Specimens donated for our annual auction and for the youth programs may also be deductible, but you need to check with your tax and estate planner.

TAX DEDUCTIBLE

It's the members that make the association
